Good and Better, Plenty and Enough Thy Will be Done

This month's lesson is all about judgments and limitations, it is also about how we can expand our energy by not comparing ourselves to others. .

Where do you think you are not good enough? Think of all of the areas of your life where you believe performance matters? _____

Where could you be better? _____

Comparatives vs superlatives

Comparative is comparing yourself to others _____

Superlative is what you excel at (think of your 'super power') _____

What results, experience, opinions, and beliefs are you using as a basis for that judgment about yourself.

How do you think that might be blocking energy in your life?

Who decides what is good or better? _____

Light Beacons Portal
Monthly Lesson

Are you comparing yourself to someone in any way?

Are you responding to someone's judgment with the opinions you have about yourself?

Say these two statements out loud:

There is enough for me

There is plenty for me

Which one is more powerful? Which one do you think is more inclusive?

Thy Will be done -- What does this mean to you?

Whose will is more powerful than yours? _____

Do you interpret that statement as your will being subservient to divine will or an expression of the human divine partnership?

Do you need divine permission to be joyful, successful, or have abundance in your life?

What is possible if you knew that surrendering to divine will was the key to your ascension completion?

What does it mean to you to have a partnership with the divine in your life?

What would be possible in your life?

Light Beacons Portal
Monthly Lesson

What do you think you would have to do or be to make that happen?

I hope you enjoyed this lesson and look forward to seeing you on the Q&A call

Many blessings
